'TZING: STRIP SIMON' FOR IPHONE

tZing: Strip Simon, pocket cartoon Simon, is now released and available on the AppStore.

From the imaginary mind of the famous game creator Haim Shafir comes a new version of Simon.

Remember Simon, the block buster sound memory game of the Eighties? Now this great game gets even more hilarious with animated characters that gradually lose their clothes.

Press the colored buttons to repeat and follow the sound sequence randomly generated by the machine. After each successful repeat, one note is added and one piece of cloths is dropped...
Keep your concentration up and get them all undressed!
